Readings: GN 17:3-9
Gospel JN 8:51-59

Reflections from Father Blessing

In today's first reading God makes a covenant with Abraham. I would like to reflect on how that covenant came about. God began a relationship with Abraham and revealed himself to Abraham through that relationship. In that relationship God tested Abraham and found him to have unconditional faith in Him. The faith is what Abraham passed down to his descendants. Therefore, if we have faith, then we are the fulfillment of the promise that God made. We are the living experience of the covenant that God made with his people.

I am so grateful to have experienced your faith, for you strengthen me in mine. I would think that is the case for us all. When we experience each other's faith, we are all made stronger. May we all continue to be an inspiration, passing on our faith to the next generation!
